SIRM member Andrew Bradley receives lifetime achievement award

SIRM member Andrew Bradley, Head of Group Risk Services, Nestlé Vevey, has received the Lifetime Achievement Award in the Excellence in Risk Management Awards 2017 presented by the Federation of European Risk Management Associations and Commercial Risk Europe at a gala dinner in London on 6 November.

The awards were decided by a panel of judges from FERMA and its member associations.

Making the lifetime achievement award, the judges said there had been many worthy candidates, but they chose Andrew Bradley because of his commitment to the insurance and risk management community, pioneering achievements, both within the industry, and more recently his campaigning, outside the industry, for road safety improvements.

Three other risk managers received FERMA Excellence in Risk Management Awards 2017. They are Risk Manager of the Year: Eberhard Faller, Senior Vice President, Central Insurances, BASF, a member of GNVW; Özge Öz, Risk Manager, LC Waikiki, member of the Turkish risk management association ERMA, who was named Rising Star of the Year; and Matthias Beck, Manager of Group Risk & Insurance, Adolf Würth GmbH & Co., who received the award for Innovative Insurance Programme of the Year.

The President of FERMA Jo Willaert congratulated the winners, saying: "We are in a period of great change. Risk management is at a cross-roads. The winners are outstanding individuals who will help us see clearly the route forward. These awards complement the European risk management certification rimap® created by FERMA and with it, they are dedicated to raising the standard and profile of risk management in Europe."

Notes to journalists

This is the second year that FERMA has conducted the Excellence in Risk Management Awards in cooperation with the publication Commercial Risk Europe. The awards also have two categories open to the insurance industry: Excellence in Customer Service and Individual Achievement.
